DELAMARIS, WORLD FAMOUS CANNED FISH PRODUCER

Delamaris is the producer of healthy and high-quality canned fish products. The company is located in Slovenia and is part of the Pivka – Delamaris Group, which is owned by the Jata Emona Group, one of the largest food companies in SE Europe.

Our story began in 1879 in a small fish processing and canning factory on the Adriatic coast. Delamaris builds on its rich, over 140-year-long tradition. Today, the company is a producer of canned fish with in-house development and production.

Delamaris has been a synonym of top-quality canned fish products, which are produced under the highest certified quality standards. Our practical canned fish specialties are of high quality, excellent taste and free of all additives, and prepared from solely natural raw materials. Our offer is made up of a rich variety of canned fish products, although we specialise in mackerel products, which, enhanced with vegetables and delicious sauces, have become world famous. Our mission is to provide the modern active consumer with culinary pleasures while saving their time on a daily basis. That motivates us to keep track of the needs and expectations of the contemporary consumer, while exploring cultures, habits and trends in partner markets.

Our passion is quality and sustainable development for today and for future generations. Our goal is to continue the tradition of high-quality food production and to provide customers with a wide range of firstclass products made for a modern lifestyle. All while ensuring that our processes have a minimal impact on the environment in which we operate.

Delamaris builds a lasting presence in its markets through long-term partnerships. Over the past decades, we have earned the trust of many customers and business partners. We are today present in over 25 countries worldwide.
